ABOUT THE AUTHOR

AUTHOR: Rachel Porter, Melbourne Australia.

Rachel Porter is general manager of Whitelion, a charity supporting thousands of vulnerable young people across Australia. Rachel is on the board of Family Access Network, is an Australia Day Ambassador, and is on the Lord Mayor’s Melbourne Awards board. She has been involved in the not-for-profit sector for over 20 years, working with various causes for the health and wellbeing of women and children, working on World Reconciliation Day events with Nelson Mandela.

Rachel has been recognised for her charity work as a finalist in the 2009 Australian of the Year awards. She received the Patch Adams Humanitarian of the Year award in 1999.
